The season's whims cause an uneasy feeling always in the bosom of the store proprietor—it's almost like a lottery for him. When the season—like this summer—is late in declaring itself it causes an undue accumulation of goods which will soon be below par—like last year's birds' nests—unless they are sold. Consequently when July approaches a large stock means

A SLAUGHTER SALE IN PRICES.

You're the gainer. We take the losing end—and it gives the shrewd home-body the chance to supply many a long-felt want, for her limit on the thing wanted is reached at last. We merely give below a suggestion. When you come to the store you will see the full catalogue.

Bushels of Laces.

We have 29,500 yards Torchon Laces, the best washable kind, in various widths. The values go to 12½c., but as the importer wanted to close them out—you need them, we don't—they are priced according to width, 3 to 5c.

3,300 yards Point de Paris Laces and insertions, widths go to widest used this season, and they are all the highest grade, values as high as 25c., but we wanted a winner for to-morrow's sale, and we put us to size.

Another Canopy, well known, is "The Dixie," a winner: price with fixtures complete, $3.50.

Summery Dress Goods.

We have decided not to carry over one yard if making them at your price will move them. We are willing to take the loss rather than have a yard left at the season's end.
